

Production and Distribution of Fine Wares in the Adriatic Region from 3rd to 7th century

Workshop, Munich - May 6th 2017

9.00-9.10: Salvatore Ortisi, Welcome

9.10-9.30: Enrico Cirelli, Introduction

9.30-10.00: Michael Mackensen, Late Roman stamp-decorated and/or relief-decorated African red slip ware from the main central Tunisian production centres

10.15-10.45: Roberto Goffredo, Carlo De Mitri, Fine wares in late Roman Apulia: the coastal and inland evidence

11.00-11.30: Coffee break

11.30-12.00: Kristina Jelinčić Vučković, Distribution of late Roman fine wares in southern Dalmatia

12.15-12.45: Igor Borzić, Mladen Pešić, Late Roman fine wares from northern Dalmatia

13.00-14.15: Lunch

14.30-15.00: Ana Konestra, A reassessment of fine wares in Histria and northern Liburnia (3rd-7th c.): an attempt to reconstruct distribution patterns

15.15-15.45: Claudio Negrelli, Production and distribution of fine wares in northern Adriatic Italy (3rd-7th c.)

16.00-16.30: Coffee break

16.30-17.00: Enrico Cirelli, Production and distribution of fine wares in Ravenna and in the middle Adriatic Italy (3rd-7th c.)

17.15-17.45: Final discussion

18.00-18.45: Michel Bonifay, Conclusions

Veranstaltungsort: LMU, Historicum, Amalienstr. 52, Raum K 001 (EG)